

NEW ACTIVITIES

SUMMARY SHEET (c)

Behavioral and Social Sciences

Purpose: To make available to the Agency the advanced techniques and new insights that are becoming increasingly available in the behavioral and social sciences. Through this the understanding and thus the handling of individuals and groups should be improved.

Method: Initially the Support Directorate would be apprised of these available benefits through means such as seminars and through professionals in the field actually working with directorate personnel on specific tasks. Additional specialized professional consultant-type personnel are used for this as specified below.

Resources required for each year, FY 1973-1977:
